Blachford Acoustics Group Receives Worthington Industries “Supplier of the Year” Award

Yesterday, on January 24th, Blachford Acoustics Group was presented with the Worthington Industries 2017 Supplier of the Year award during a brief ceremony held on the production floor at Blachford’s West Chicago location. The award is presented annually to Worthington’s top supplier. Out of Worthington’s 647 suppliers, Blachford was solely recognized for having outstanding overall PPM part quality, top-notch customer service metrics and a strong engineering partnership.

Worthington’s Zac Guisinger, Bill Stoots, Jon Barleycorn, Andy Harris, Marshall Rein and Dan Povse presented Blachford Acoustics Group Chief Operating Officer and President, Bill Hayes with the distinctive honor. The award has the following phrase etched into it: “We cannot operate profitably without those who supply the quality materials we need.”

As the lone recipient of the award, Blachford hopes to continue to meet and exceed Worthington’s expectations as our relationship grows.
