

Fighting Against Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act

Fiscal year 2024

Blachford AM Ltd.

Introduction

Blachford AM Ltd. (Blachford) is a subsidiary of H.L. Blachford Ltd (HLB) and together meet the entity definition as defined in the Fighting Against Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act. This report contains the requirements as listed in part 2, 11(1) of the Act.

This report focuses on actions taken during the previous financial reporting year to prevent and reduce the risk that forced labour or child labour is used at any step of the production of goods in Canada, or of goods imported into Canada by the entity.

This report is also made available to the public by publishing it in a prominent place on the entity's website.

The following identifies the steps the entity has taken during its previous financial year to prevent and reduce the risk that forced labour or child labour is used at any step of the production of goods in Canada or elsewhere by the entity or of goods imported into Canada by the entity.

Blachford is committed to promoting the best interests of all our stakeholders, emphasizing health and safety, protection of the environment, education, human rights, and ethical behavior. Blachford maintains a Corporate Social Responsibility Policy specifying that we reject the use of forced labour, convict/indentured labour, including forced or indentured child labour. We also follow provincial and federal legislation, including the Employment Standards Act, Occupational Health and Safety Act, Pay Equity Act, and the Human Rights Code.

Blachford maintains a Supplier Qualification Requirements procedure where new and existing vendors are assessed. The process covers REACH, ROHS and Conflict Minerals but will require review to incorporate forced and child labour in supply chains.
